

Inheritance tax - how do the current rules affect you and your family?

Planning for the future is critical but most people can't find the time to visit a solicitor or worry that it's too complicated or expensive.

Our legal experts will be providing professional and practical guidance on a wide range of issues. This will enable you to make an informed decision, and gain peace of mind, on how best to provide financial protection for you and your family.

Topics will include:

- Will planning
- Inheritance tax planning
- Estate administration
- Intestacy rules
- Lasting Powers of Attorney
