One Couple, One Lawyer Divorce

Machins SOLICITORS

Working together for a fair and positive future

Separating or divorcing doesn't have to mean conflict, costly legal battles or endless correspondence between solicitors. One Couple, One Lawyer Divorce (Resolution Together) allows you and your partner to work with a single specially trained family solicitor who supports you both throughout the process.

Our solicitor remains impartial, helping you understand your options, explore solutions and reach agreements that are right for your family.

We can help you with:

- Divorce and dissolution proceedings
- Financial settlements
- Property matters
- Child arrangements
- Co-parenting plans

Our experienced family law team is specially trained in the Resolution Together process and will guide you with professionalism, sensitivity and practical legal support throughout the process.

How the process works

Free 15-minute suitability call
We will conduct a call with each party to assess your circumstances and determine whether the approach is right for you.

Meet with your joint solicitor
If suitable, both partners meet with the same solicitor, who acts impartially and supports you both through the process.

Explore your options together
Helping you resolve important issues including finances, property and child arrangements.

Reach fair agreements
Helping you make informed decisions and work towards practical solutions that meet the needs of everyone involved.
